

Wooster Small Grains Field Day – June 14, 2022 – Schaffter-Snyder Farm

- 8:15 AM – 8:45 AM Registration/Sign-in
- 8:45 AM - 9:00 AM Welcome and Introductions
- Overview of the Day
- 9:00AM – 9:30 AM Dr. Clay Sneller – Korean and older cultivars of wheat (Schaffter Farm)
- 9:35 AM – 10:05 AM Dr. Bryan Penning – Preharvest sprouting in diverse soft winter wheat
- Byung-Kee – Milling and baking quality improvement and extended uses of eastern US soft wheat (Schaffter Farm)
- 10:10 AM – 10:35 AM Dr. Laura Lindsey – Small grain variety trial update; seeding rates; discussion on spring wheat? (Schaffter Farm)
- 10:40 AM – 11:10 AM Dr. Eric Stockinger – Malting barley for brewing (Schaffter)
- 11:15 pm – 12:00 pm Lunch at Schaffter and words from the OCW/OSGMP; grad student posters
- 12:00 PM - 12:10 PM Transfer to Snyder
- 12:10 PM – 12:40 PM Dr. Pierce Paul – Wheat growth staging, and disease identification management, with emphasis in new premixed fungicides (Snyder)
- 12:45 PM – 1:05 PM Dr. Andy Michel – Cereal Leaf Beetle demo (Snyder)
- 1:05 PM Adjourn, Evaluations, safe drive home. Wheat Board to ATI for meeting.

Logistics:

Participants park at Schaffter to start day.

Grad students will have posters set up in morning for viewing and then be available for questions at lunch

Lunch at Schaffter building

Transfer to Snyder for afternoon sessions

Supplies:

Pop-up tents

Table for registration

Sign-in Sheets for VITA

Business cards

Fact sheets

Presenter sheets (if any)

Sound system – mic, speakers

Event signs

Farm Crew:

Porta-pots

Tables and Chairs

Trash cans

People mover wagons